

MOBILIZING JUSTICE

MOBILIZING JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP
4TH ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM
Thursday, May 28, 2026: 11:00 AM – 3:50 PM ET Register HERE.

11:00 AM	Land Acknowledgement
11:05 AM – 11:30 AM	Welcome and Introduction to the National Survey on Transport Poverty Steven Farber, Director of Mobilizing Justice Partnership
11:30 AM - 12:00 PM	Exploring the National Survey on Transport Poverty: An Interactive Dashboard Kevin Manaugh, Associate Professor, Department of Geography & McGill School of Environment
12:00 PM - 12:50 PM	Using the National Survey in Policy and Practice Lorina Hoxha, City of Toronto Stephanie Procyk – United Way Greater Toronto Arun Bhowmick, City of Edmonton Moderator: Howaida Hassan, City of Edmonton
12:50 PM - 1:20 PM	Break
1:20 AM – 2:05 PM	Session 1: Suppressed Travel & Mental Health Impacts Do perceptions influence suppressed and excess travel? A Structural Equation Modelling Approach Paromita Nakshi, University of Toronto Missed Trips, Missed Opportunities: Accessibility and Suppressed Travel in Canada Yuxin Miao, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Moderator: Amir Forouhar, Research Coordinator, Mobilizing Justice Partnership
2:05 PM - 3:05 PM	Session 2: Transportation Disadvantages Across Modes Turning Preference into Practice: Exploring Travel Mode Dissonance Across Canadian Cities Mackenzie St. Arnault, University of Toronto Analyzing electric micromobility amongst equity-deserving communities in Canadian Cities Ignacio Tiznado-Aitken, University of Toronto Force Majeure: Car Dependency and Forced Car Ownership in Canada Stella Connaughton, Cornell University Moderator: Amir Forouhar, Research Coordinator, Mobilizing Justice Partnership
3:05 PM - 3:50 PM	Session 3: Accessibility Standards for Achieving Equitable Outcomes Understanding the relationship between transportation accessibility and sufficiency Brenn Anderson-Gregson, University of Toronto Accessibility Standards for Equity in Transportation Planning and Policy Bruno Dos Santos, McMaster University Moderator: Amir Forouhar, Research Coordinator, Mobilizing Justice Partnership